There is no Path, We make that Path – Paulinianism on All Crises

I. We are in a Crisis

Of course we are struggling, of course we are heroic, of course we want to win, of course we will keep making that path, I call this in Damascus, what I pled as Resurrection.

II. Jordan

I am in deep crisis, I am walking, gliding, that is Christ.

III. Lift It Up, be in a Resurrection

Grace then is this simple levity, jokes and in fact Paulinian – to be in fact a subjective Priest who is Paul who works in that light called ‘Lystra’.
